Turin, September 15, N. S.

THE 8th Inſtant being the Anniverſary of the Victory at the Raiſing of the Siege of this City, all the Religious Orders went in Proceſſion to the Cathedral Church, where Te Deum was ſung, the Cannon of the Town and Citadel firing thrice. His Sardinian Majeſty and the Prince who uſed to follow the Proceſſion in their Regal Veſtments, attended by the Knights of the Annonciada in their Habits, did not this Year perform that Ceremony, becauſe of Madame Royale's preſent Illneſs, which it is judged ſhe cannot get over. Yeſterday the Queen went to Rivoli to take the young Duke d'Aouſte from thence, and to remove with the Court to the Veneria, where the Air is milder at this Seaſon, and where his Sardinian Majeſty uſually reſides till about Chriſtmas. The Prince of Piemont is gone to the Veneria to meet the Queen, but the King does not ſtir from his Mother, whom he commonly feeds with his own Hand.

Stockholm, Aug. 28, O. S. The States have reſolved, that all the Royal Demeſnes which have been alienated, ſhall be redeemable by the Crown; as well thoſe which have been mortgaged, as thoſe which were ſold during the Neceſſity of the late War. An Ordinance is agreed on by the States and will ſoon be publiſhed, for moderating the Reſtrictions and Inconveniencies Artificers lie under; whereby the Dearneſs of ſeveral manufactured Goods will be abated. By Virtue of this Ordinance all Foreign Handicraftſmen, who ſhall ſettle here, will be exempted from paying any Contribution for the Space of three Years, and be allowed the free Exerciſe of their Religion.

Hanover, Sept. 17. Yeſterday the King reviewed near this Town ſix Battallions and 12 Squadrons. The Foot conſiſted of two Battallions of Guards, with the Battallions of Campen, Zuſtraw, Lutchins, and Melville: And the Horſe were, the Squadron of Life-Guards, two Squadrons of the Life-Regiment, two Squadrons of Hasberg, three Squadrons of Pontpietrin Dragoons, and four Squadrons of de Wendt likewiſe Dragoons. The whole amounted, both Horſe and Foot, to about 6000 Men; and being old Troops who have been in Service, and now in excellent Order, they made a very fine Appearance; to the Satisfaction of His Majeſty, who was attended by the Duke of York, Prince Frederick, and the Prince of Beveren, and a very numerous Court. The Concourſe of Spectators from all the neighbouring Parts was very great. When His Majeſty goes to the Gohre, he will review another Body of His Troops, which are to draw together from their Quarters in thoſe Parts.

Paris, Sept. 22. On the 20th Inſtant died M. le Pelletier de la Houſſaye, Counſellour of State, formerly Comptroller-General of the Finances; he was alſo the Duke of Orleans's Chancellour and Keeper of the Seals, which Office his Royal Highneſs has conferred upon M. d'Argenſon Lieutenant-General de Police, who is alſo Preſident of his Council and Surintendant of his Houſhold and Revenues. His Royal Highneſs has choſen M. Mellor, who was formerly in the Service of the Cardinal du Bois, to be his Secretary in all Affairs relating to the India Company; a Deputation from the Directors of which Company, goes regularly every Sunday to Verſailles, to lay before the Comptroller-General of the Finances, the Tranſactions of the preceeding Week. The Mareſchal de Villars's Siſter, who was Abbeſs of Chelles, and who upon her Removal to make Room for Mademoiſelle d'Orleans as Abbeſs, was allowed a Penſion of 10000 Livres a Year, died ſome Days ago.

Hague, Sept. 24, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland aſſembled here on the 21ſt Inſtant, and ſeparated Yeſterday, after having paſſed a Reſolution relating to the Oſtend India Company, which is to be laid To-Day before the States General. Letters from Prague of the 8th Inſtant give an Account that the Ceremony of the Emperour's Coronation as King of Bohemia, was performed there with great Pomp on the 5th Inſtant, and the Empreſs's as Queen of Bohemia on the 8th.

Lisbon, Sept. 4, N. S. The Portugueſe Man of War of 40 Guns, which ſailed from this Harbour the 12th of July laſt to cruiſe upon the Coaſt againſt the Moors, returned the 1ſt Inſtant.
